

Stanisław Bitka – film critic, PhD student in film studies at Adam Mickiewicz University. His research interests centre around music in film, music documentaries, and American indie films, as well as Iranian art films. E-mail address: <stanislaw.bitka@gmail.com>.

Piotr Bogalecki – PhD, associate professor in the Faculty of Comparative Literature at the University of Silesia. Author of a monograph entitled “Niedorozmowy”. Kategoria niezrozumiałości w poezji Krystyny Miłobędzkiej [“The Untalkable. The Category of Inexplicability in Krystyna Miłobędzka’s Poetry”] (Warsaw 2011, awarded by the National Centre for Culture) and Szczęśliwe winy teolingwizmu. Poezja polska po roku 1968 w perspektywie postsekularnej [Felix Culpa of Teo-Linguism. Polish Poetry after 1968 from the Post-Secular Perspective] (Kraków 2016). E-mail address: <pbogalecki@gmail.com>.

Anna Burzyńska – professor of literary studies, Faculty of Polish Studies, Jagiellonian University, Cracow. Engaged in the newest literary theory, postmodern philosophy and the aesthetics of postmodernism. Head of the Literary Theory Department in the Faculty of Polish Studies at the Jagiellonian University. Currently, she is working on a history of poststructuralism. E-mail address: <anna.burzynska@uj.edu.pl>.

Teresa Fazan – graduate of the Institute of Philosophy at the University of Warsaw, student of the College of Inter-area Individual Studies in the Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Warsaw and the Institute of Philosophy at the Freie Universität Berlin. She received a scholarship from the Minister of Science and Higher Education for outstanding scientific achievements. Works as a dance critic, cooperates with the portal taniecipolska.pl, publishes in „Didaskalia”, „Teatr”, „Res Publice Nowa”. E-mail address: <teresa.fazan@gmail.com>.

Marek Hendrykowski – film historian, Professor at the Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań (Institute of Film, Media and Audiovisual Arts). Founder and Senior Editor of “IMAGES. The International Journal of European Film, Performing Arts and Audiovisual Communication”. Member of the Association of Polish Filmmakers, the DOMITOR (International Association to Promote Study of Early Cinema) and the European Film Academy (EFA). He is an expert in the identification of old unidentified tapes preserved in archival film collections. Author of many books, recently: Semiotyka ruchomych obrazów [Semiotics of Moving Pictures] (Poznań 2014), Współczesna adaptacja filmowa [Contemporary Film Adaptation] (Poznań 2015), Proksemika. Studia z semiotyki i antropologii kultury [Proxemics] (Poznań 2016), Scenariusz filmowy – teoria i praktyka [Screenwriting. Theory and Practice] (2016), News (2017), Semiotics of Face (Poznań 2017), Actor and Actorship in Film (Poznań 2017). E-mail address: <marekhendrykowski@gmail.com>.

Małgorzata Kafel – PhD student in the Faculty of Polish Studies of the Jagiellonian University. Graduate of comparative studies at the Faculty of Polish Studies of the Jagiellonian University, school of literary translation at the Chair for Translation Studies and Intercultural Communication of the Jagiellonian University and Cracow University of Economics (field of study: international relations). Literary translator, member of Polish Literary Translators Association. Her research interests include comparative literature, correspondence of arts, literary translation, atmosphere and mood as an aesthetic category and dimension of a literary work. E-mail address: <kafelm@poczta.fm>.

Joanna Kamper-Warejko – PhD (dr hab.), Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Institute of Polish Language, linguist, graduate of Speech Therapy Studies. Interested in the history of Polish language, development of language, lexicology, historical stylistics and prescriptive linguistics. Her recent research focuses on development of child speech. ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9877-6242>. E-mail address: <asiakw@umk.pl>.

Iwona Kaproń-Charzyńska – PhD (dr hab.), Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Institute of Polish Language, linguist, graduate of Speech Therapy studies. She is engaged in scientific research in the field of linguistics, pragmatics, morphology, stylistics, language culture and psycholinguistics. She is the secretary of the linguistics journal “Linguistica Copernicana”. ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-5798-2592>. E-mail address: <ikap@umk.pl>.

Mateusz Kłosowski – final-year student of Polish Studies at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań. His research interests include 20th-century literature, with the focus on poetry and literature’s relation to other arts, in particular painting and film, and also philosophy, psychology and sociology. Author of a chapter in the book Paths of interpretation ed. by J. Grądział-Wójcik and A. Kwiatkowska (Poznań 2017). E-mail address: <mateusz.klosowski514@wp.pl>.

Anna Krajewska – full Professor, PhD (dr hab.), head of the Unit for Literary Aesthetics at Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań. Editor-in-chief of the literary theory journal “Przestrzenie Teorii” and the Przestrzenie Teorii Library series. She deals with literary studies, especially the theory of drama, literary and performative aesthetics. Author of numerous works on the theory and aesthetics of contemporary drama, including: Komedia polska dwudziestolecia międzywojennego. Tradycjonaliści i nowatorzy [Polish Comedy of the Inter-war Period. Traditionalists and Innovators] (Wrocław 1989–1st ed., Poznań 2004–2nd ed.), Dramat i teatr absurdu w Polsce [Drama and the Theatre of the Absurd in Poland] (Poznań 1996), Dramat współczesny. Teoria i interpretacja [Contemporary Drama. Theory and Interpretation] (Poznań 2005), Dramatyczna teoria literatury [Dramatic Literary Theory] (Poznań 2009). She is currently writing Estetyka antybinarna [Anti-binary Aesthetics]. E-mail address: <akraj@amu.edu.pl>.

Wojciech Ligęza – PhD, prof. dr. hab., Jagiellonian University, Kraków, theoretician of literature, literary scholar and literary critic; his research interests include modern Polish poetry and prose, 20th c. Polish literature in exile, relationships and correspondences between literature and other forms of art. Head of the Chair in the History of Polish Literature in the 20th c., Faculty of Polish Studies, Jagiellonian University.

Deputy Editor of "Konteksty Kultury" (Jagiellonian University). Author a number of books, including Jeruzolima i Babilon. Miasta poetów emigracyjnych [Jerusalem and Babylon. The cities of émigré poets] (Kraków 1998), Jaśniejsze strony katastrofy. Szkice o twórczości poetów emigracyjnych [Brighter sides of a disaster. Some sketches on the writings of émigré poets] (Kraków 2001), O poezji Wisławy Szymborskiej. Świat w stanie korekty [On Wisława Szymborska's poetry. The world in revision] (Kraków 2002), Pod kreską. Teksty z lat 1996–2013 [In the red. Texts written between 1996–2013] (2013, 2nd. ed. 2017), and recently compiled and edited Wybór poezji [A selection of poems] by Wisława Szymborska (BN I, 327, 2016), Bez rutyny. O poezji Wisławy Szymborskiej i Zbigniewa Herberta [With no previous experience. On poetry of Wisława Szymborska and Zbigniew Herbert] (Kraków 2016) and published Nieoczywistość. Postlowia, wstępy, szkice [Non-obviousness. Forewords, afterwords, introductions and sketches] (Kraków 2017). Currently is engaged in work on Polish poetry in the 20th and 21st. centuries and prepares the volume entitled Ale książki. Szkice o poezji [What books! Sketches on poetry] for publication. E-mail address: <wligeza@wp.pl>.

Jakub Momro – PhD – associate professor at the Jagiellonian University, Department of Polish Studies, Faculty of Literary Anthropology and Cultural Studies. Literary scholar, philosopher, essayist, and translator (e.g. J. Derrida, P. Lacoue-Labarthe, J.-L. Nancy, J. Kristeva, R. Barthes, P. Szendy). He is a member of the editorial board of the bi-monthly Journal "Second Texts", and Scientific Committee of the "New Humanities" Series. He has published: Literature of Consciousness. Samuel Beckett – subject – negativity (pol. edition, Universitas, 2010, eng. edition, Peter Lang, 2015); Hauntologies od Modernity. Geneses (pol. edition, IBL PAN, 2014). In 2018 his book "The ear has no eyelid. Phonic scenes primitive" will be published. He is currently working on two projects: 1. On epistemological, and political dimension of modern and contemporary imagination. 2. Against Memory. On Natural History of Radical Modernity. E-mail address: <jakub.momro@uj.edu.pl; jakub.momro@wp.pl>.

Constantin Noica (1909–1987) – Romanian philosopher, persecuted for many years by the Communist regime, founder of the informal school of philosophy (described in Gabriel Liiceanu's Păltiniș Diary) that shaped many of post-1989 Romania's leading intellectuals. Closest to the dialectical and hermeneutic philosophical traditions, author of commentaries on Hegel and Kant, numerous works on Romanian culture and the "Romanian sense of being". His most important book is the ontological treatise Devenirea întru ființa ("Becoming into being". 1981). Noica's book Six illnesses of the modern soul has been translated into Polish by Ireneusz Kania.

Magdalena Popiel – PhD (dr hab.). Employed at the Department of Literary Anthropology and Cultural Research in the Faculty of Polish Studies at the Jagiellonian University. Deals with literature and contemporary and postmodern aesthetics in terms of anthropology and comparative cultural studies. Author of The world of the artist. Modernist aesthetics of creation (awaiting publication), Wyspiański. Mythology of a modern artist (Kraków 2007, 2nd edition expanded – 2008); Faces of sublimity. Aesthetics of Young-Poland novels, (Kraków 1999, 2nd edition – 2000). Currently working on Global history of Polish literature. Interpretations. Head of the International Association of Polish Studies, member of the IBL Scientific Board at the Polish Academy of Sciences, member of the editorial committee of “Przestrzeni Teorii”, member of the Curriculum Board of “Polish Studies Bulletin”, former Scientific Editor of the “National Library” series. E-mail address <mpopiel@interia.pl>.

Rozalia Słodczyk – PhD, University of Warsaw, literary scholar, art historian, specialist in Italian studies, language editor; her research interests include: verbal-visual relations (intersemiotics, iconicism, ekphrasis, hypotyposis), contemporary Italian literature (especially the work of Antonio Tabucchi), modern European art, iconography, art theory and criticism, translation, glottodidactics, film history. Doctoral thesis: Ekphrasis and hypotyposis. Interference of literature and painting in 20th-century Italian prose and Polish essays. E-mail address: <rslodczyk@wp.pl>.

Joanna Szkudlarek – a doctoral student of philosophy at the University of Gdańsk. Her doctoral advisor is Professor Paweł Dybel from The Institute of Philosophy and Sociology of the Polish Academy of Sciences. The author is interested in the British object relations theory, and especially in theoretical works of W.R. Bion. She learns about psychoanalysis also from its practitioners, by attending psychoanalytic seminar groups. E-mail address: <joszkud@gmail.com>.

Agnieszka Urbańczyk – PhD student at the Polish Philology Department of the Jagiellonian University, cultural studies scholar; her main fields of interests are the politics of popular culture (with the focus on the science fiction genre), its reception, fan cultures and their discourses, Critical Theory, biopolitics, French Revolution, and Polish Futurist movement. E-mail address: <agnieszka.urbanczyk@op.pl>.

Jakub Walczak – PhD in Literature Studies, literary scholar, graduate and research worker in the Institute of Slavic Studies, graduate of the Academy of Music in Wrocław. Author of Kiedy literatura staje się muzyką (Kraków 2015). His scientific interests are focused around relations of music and literature, intersemiotic translation, rhetoric, media. E-mail address: <jakub.walczak@uwr.edu.pl>.

Andrzej Zawadzki – philologist, employed at the Department of Polish Studies at the Jagiellonian University. Books authored: Contemporary philosophical essays in Polish publications from the second half of the 20th century (Kraków 2001), Literature and weak thought (Kraków 2009), Image and trace (Kraków 2014), co-author (with Monika Surma-Gawłowska) of an anthology of Italian hermeneutic thought Powerful thought, weak thought (Kraków 2015). E-mail address: <andrzej.zawadzki@uj.edu.pl>.