

Joanna Kic-Drgas, is assistant prof has ten years of experience in teaching languages for specific purposes and has authored and co-authored academic and professional papers focused on teaching methodology, intercultural communication, multilingualism and international cooperation. Since 2018 she leader of Polish team in the Erasmus Plus Project TRAILS (LSP Teacher Training Summer School), 2018-1-FR01-KA203-048085, KA2 "Cooperation for Innovation and the Exchange of Good Practices", 2018-2020.

She is a member of the two key associations in Poland, the Polish Association of Foreign Language Teachers and the Association of Applied Linguistics, which will support the realisation of the project in Poland and are ready to support making the results of the project widespread.

Email: j.drgas@amu.edu.pl